

STAKE HOLDER EMPLOYER FEEDBACK ANALYSIS
REPORT ON CURRICULUM & SYLLABI ACADEMIC YEAR

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS REPORT
1	33.3% Of the peoples felt excellent for about curriculum relevant for employability. 50% Of the peoples felt very good for about curriculum relevant for employability. 16.7% Of the peoples felt good for about curriculum relevant for employability.
2	66.7% of the people felt excellent for about curriculum effective for developing innovative thinking. 16.7% of the people felt very good for about curriculum effective for developing innovative thinking. 16.7% of the people felt good for about curriculum effective for developing innovative thinking.
3	16.7% of the people felt excellent for about syllabus effective for developing skill oriented towards human resources. 83.3% of the people felt very good for about syllabus effective for developing skill oriented towards human resources.
4	16.7% of the people felt excellent for about effectiveness of curriculum for development of entrepreneurship. 83.3% of the people felt good for about effectiveness of curriculum for development of entrepreneurship.
5	33.3% of the people felt excellent for about ability to contribute effectively to Research and Development activities to face new trends in technology. 66.7% of the people felt very good for about ability to contribute effectively to Research and Development activities to face new trends in technology.

6	50% of the people felt excellent for about leadership and professional ethics. 50% of the people felt very good for about leadership and professional ethics.
7	16.7% of the people felt excellent for about ability to contribute effectively as a team member. 83.3% of the people felt very good for about ability to contribute effectively as a team member.
8	66.7% of the people felt excellent for about proficiency in soft skills. 33.3% of the people felt very good for about proficiency in soft skills.
9	33.3% Of the people felt excellent for about curriculum meets the requirements of competency of health care service/research/ industry. 66.7% Of the people felt very good for about curriculum meet the requirements of competency of health care service/research/ industry.
10	33.3% Of the people felt excellent for about ability to provide a suitable solution for a problem and analyze related risks and other aspects. 66.7% Of the people felt very good for about ability to provide a suitable solution for a problem and analyze related risks and other aspects